

Cancellation Policy

Effective Date: August 29, 2026

1. Overview

This Cancellation Policy explains how customers may cancel subscriptions, orders, or services provided by [spring] ("Company," "we," "us," or "our").

2. Subscription Cancellation

Customers with recurring subscriptions may cancel their subscription at any time through their account settings or by contacting our support team.

Cancellation will generally prevent future recurring charges. Unless otherwise stated in the applicable service terms, cancellation does not automatically create a refund for amounts already paid.

3. Cancellation Before Service Delivery

If a customer cancels an order or service before work has started or before the service has been delivered, the customer may be eligible for a full or partial refund depending on the circumstances.

Any applicable cancellation fees will be communicated before or during the purchasing process where reasonably possible.

4. Cancellation After Service Has Started

If work has already begun, cancellation may result in a partial refund or no refund, depending on the amount of work completed and the type of service purchased.

For customized services, cancellation rights may be more limited once production or preparation has begun.

5. Automatic Renewal

Subscriptions may automatically renew according to the billing period selected at the time of purchase.

Customers are responsible for cancelling their subscription before the next renewal date if they do not wish to be charged for another billing period.

6. Failed Payments

If a recurring payment fails, we may attempt to collect the outstanding amount or temporarily restrict access to the applicable service.

If payment remains unsuccessful, the subscription may be cancelled or suspended.

7. Company-Initiated Cancellation

We reserve the right to suspend or cancel services where necessary, including in cases of:

- Violation of our Terms of Service.
- Fraudulent or unauthorized activity.
- Abuse of our systems or personnel.
- Failure to make required payments.
- Legal or regulatory requirements.

Where appropriate, customers will be notified of the reason for cancellation.

8. How to Cancel

Customers may cancel by:

- Using the cancellation controls available in their account; or
- Contacting support@[company-domain].com.

Customers should retain confirmation of their cancellation for their records.

9. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Cancellation Policy from time to time. Updated terms will become effective when published or communicated.
